Wednesday Night Bible Study on Proverbs

Wednesdays, 6:30pm

Starting Sept 10th

Lisa and Martin Clarke will be teaching a study on Proverbs Wednesdays following Wednesday Night Supper which will run simultaneously with whatever the Wednesday Supper Program might be. This class will start September 10th at 6:30pm and meet in the hospitality room. There is no charge for the class and no literature. We invite you to read the first three chapters of Proverbs ahead of time before the study starts.

Understanding the Book of Hebrews

Thursdays, 7:00pm

Sept 11 - Oct 16

Copies of heavenly things? Obsolete covenant? The order of Melchizedek? What does all that mean?!? Come and join Josh McDaniel on Thursday nights at 7:00pm and let's find out. The sustained argument contained in the Book of Hebrews can seem irrelevant and off-putting in our culture of sound-bites and quick fixes. The book is often overshadowed by Johannine and Pauline theology. In this six-week bible study, we will learn about the context in which the book was written, its historical reception, and how Hebrews informs our faith today. We can apply these lessons to our modern lives. Hebrews is a thorough and profound exposition of why our faith must rest in Jesus.

Bring only your bibles (preferably ESV, NRSV, or CEB translations) and your thinking caps; Josh will provide any supplementary materials we will need. You are invited to preview Hebrews prior to the start of the study.

Please fill out the sign up sheet in the breezeway or sign up online under events registration on our website (www.chambleeumc.org). If you need childcare make sure you indicate it on the sign up sheet.
